

NEW YORK AND THE CARIBBEAN

TEN NIGHT HOLIDAYS EACH INCLUDING A SEVEN NIGHT CRUISE ON BOARD THE STAR CLIPPER OR THE ROYAL CLIPPER

When the nights have drawn in back in Europe, what better way to banish the blues than by flying to the Big Apple for a couple of days Christmas shopping in one of world's most exciting cities, combined with a relaxing week in the glorious Caribbean Sea. The atmospheric scene of Central Park under a dusting of snow is a great inspiration to treat friends and relatives with some stateside Christmas gifts, whilst the buzzing metropolis offers food, opera and art on a par with any European capital. A few hours flight from New York are the sparkling seas of the Caribbean and the tropical paradises of St Maarten and Barbados from where the Star Clipper and Royal Clipper each set sail on a week long voyage around some of the Caribbean's most stunning islands including Anguilla, Grenada, St Lucia and St Kitts. Relax on the deck and enjoy the warm sun below the bright white sails, enjoy a rum cocktail whilst the sun sets over the hazy sea, or hop on and off at some of the postcard-perfect stops. Highlights of the cruises include the uninhabited Norman Island, supposedly the inspiration for Robert Louis Stevenson's novel 'Treasure Island' and the pristine marine park of Tobago Cays in the Grenadines.
